West Goshen

Cornwall, Conn. Unknown source ✓

8/8/34. Hubert T. Hubbell, West Goshen, Conn., writes that the only chestnut plantations in this district are located on the Mohawk State Forest in Cornwall.

Take Route 4 westerly from Torrington to West Goshen, turn on second left from West Goshen Post Office on dirt road marked Mohawk State Forest and C.C.C. Camp Tourney; 1½ miles on dirt road, past C.C.C. camp to Ranger's headquarters where the plots are located.

West Cornwall, Conn. Unknown source

Amity(?) Fitzhugh
East Street

gsg (3/7/1942) reports a tree 350 yds from highway 20' tall, bearing this year

Fairfield Co. Castanea mollissima ✓

Robt. H. Montgomery Coos Cob, Connecticut.

Unknown source

5 trees or more, received from Willard G. Briby, Baldwin, N.Y., per letter's letter 11/30/26.