

Breastfeeding Prevalence Connecticut

2019-2021 Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System Data

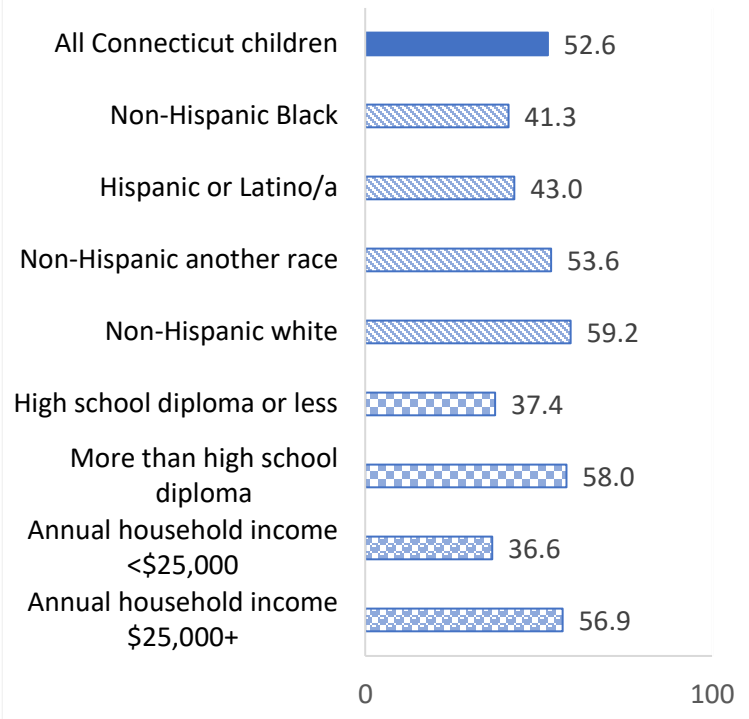

Community, Family Health and Prevention Section • June 2023

The prevalence of breastfeeding among Connecticut children varies by race and ethnicity, parental educational attainment, and annual household income.

Percent of Connecticut Children Ever Breastfed

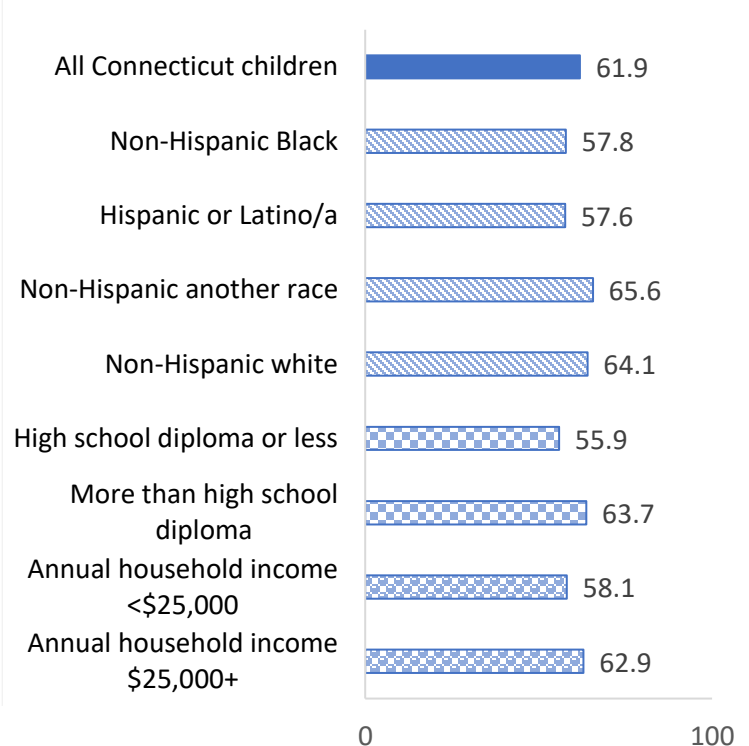

Percent of Connecticut Children Breastfed for 6+ Months

Percent of Connecticut Children Breastfed for 12+ Months

Percent of Connecticut Children Breastfed Exclusively for 3+ Months

*Three years of data were aggregated to produce the statistics presented in this fact sheet.

^Caution should be exercised when interpreting these estimates because the coefficient of variation is 15% to 20.0%.