Requesting a Certified Copy of a Marriage Record from State

Who Can Request A Certified Copy Of A Marriage Certificate?

A certified copy of a marriage certificate may be purchased for a fee by anyone who is at least 18 years old. All information on the marriage certificate is available to the requester, except the social security numbers of the spouses. Copies of marriage certificates that include the spouse's social security numbers will only be issued to the parties to the marriage. If you are requesting a copy of the marriage certificate with the social security numbers on the certificate, you will need to provide proof of identity (e.g. photocopy of driver's license, passport, etc.) that you are one of the parties named on the marriage certificate.

To obtain a certified copy of a marriage certificate, you must submit your request to the vital records office of the town where the marriage occurred, the town(s) where the parties to the marriage resided at the time of the marriage, or from the State Vital Records Office.

Checklist for Obtaining a Marriage Certificate:

- Complete the application
- Include the applicable fee
- Make sure that you are eligible to obtain the marriage certificate
