Ethics and Boundaries Assessment Services LLC

Ethics and Boundaries Assessment Services LLC (EBAS) offers an essay exam that assesses an individual's understanding of ethics and boundaries in a professional setting.

- Boundaries
- Unprofessional Conduct
- Professional Standards
- Fraud
- Substance Abuse

EBAS Essay Exam

Examinees are presented with realistic, hypothetical scenarios and asked to submit an appropriate response.

From the scenarios presented, the examinee is required to

- Identify ethical issues
- Discuss consequences
- Discuss solutions
- Explain how the unethical actions compromise the community's safety and welfare

---

Test Administration

The EBAS exam is an online essay exam administered at Prometric Testing Centers. Prometric offers easy appointment scheduling and predictable exam delivery.

Experienced Graders

EBAS graders come from diverse backgrounds and have one thing in common, they all have regulatory experience.

Essays are scored by a pool of graders, none of which are from the examinees state.

---

Score Report

Each essay has a maximum score of 16 points and 12 points is a passing score.

A Score Report is sent to the examinee and regulatory board designated on the application, approximately three weeks after the exam is taken.
