Returned Soldier

The Returned Soldier sculpture was commissioned by Benjamin Fitch and completed in 1867 by Larkin Goldsmith Meade, Jr., an American sculptor, classically trained in Italy.

The sculpture was placed at the first Veterans Home in Darien in 1867 and was cleaned and moved in 1985 to its present, prominent location as you enter the campus.

Providing Supportive

HISTORY

The Connecticut Veterans Home, founded in 1864, was the first home for Veterans in the country. The Home served the needs of thousands of Service members from various wars until 1940 when it was relocated to its current location in Rocky Hill where the support and care for Connecticut Veterans continues.

RESIDENTIAL FACILITY

The Residential Program provides Veterans with a continuum of rehabilitation services & programs designed to return them to independent living.

Residential Staff assists each Veteran in developing an individualized rehabilitative plan outlining his or her goals and objectives and removing barriers to achieving them.

Following a four month billing grace period, each Veteran admitted to the Residential Facility will be billed at a rate determined by the Department of Veterans Affairs.
