B. Using the Confidential "COMPLIANCE ALERT LINE LINK":

"COMPLIANCE ALERT LINE LINK" number is 860-418-6991. Presently, all calls go to a voice mail box and are retrieved daily.

I. Confidentiality

Individuals, who report in good faith possible compliance issues, will be accorded confidentiality and/or anonymity to the extent possible under the law. The reporting individual's identity may become known during the normal course of the investigation and this possibility will be discussed with the individual by the ACIO.

II. Individual Responsibility for Compliance

The act of making a compliance report will not exempt the reporter from the consequence of their own participation in unethical or illegal conduct and does not relieve the reporter of the obligation to file reports otherwise mandated, such as incident reports required by The DMHAS. Reports that are proven with clear and convincing evidence to be made in bad faith, for example with reckless disregard or willful ignorance of the facts, will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of the individual making such bad faith report.

III. Feedback to the Reporting Individual

The ACIO acknowledges the receipt of all reports received whenever this is possible. Phoned reports left on the ACIO's private voice mail are acknowledged if a name and number are left, email is returned, letters are acknowledged if a return name and address are known and calls to the ALERT LINE are acknowledged with a faxed or emailed response noting the receipt of the report in the ACIO's office.

Details of the progress on or resolution of investigations are generally not shared with the reporting individual, unless required by law. General activities may be shared as appropriate to assure the reporting individual that action is being taken on the issue reported.

IV. Non-Retaliation, Non-retribution for Reporting

The DMHAS recognizes that individuals may be reluctant to report actual or potential wrong doing due to possible retaliation, retribution or harassment. The DMHAS policy regarding these issues states that:

- No supervisor, manager or employee is permitted to engage in retaliation, retribution or harassment directed against any individual who reports a concern.
- The ACIO is responsible for investigating any reports of retaliation, retribution or harassment of reporters (whistle-blowers) when it involves internal investigations.
