

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL CLASS
MEMBERS IN TOLIVER v. SEMPLE,
3:16-cv-1899 (SRU) pending in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut:

On or about April 1, 2024, the Court intends to decertify the class and subclass in the case involving conditions of confinement at OSBORN CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION. If you are or were incarcerated at Osborn between November 1, 2013 and the present, and you believe you may have Eighth Amendment claims against the Department of Correction based on the alleged condition of the water, or you were housed in the Q Buildings at Osborn between November 1, 2013 through December 2016, and you believe you may have Eighth Amendment claims against the Department of Correction based on alleged exposure to PCBs and asbestos, you should file those lawsuits on or before April 1, 2024, or risk being barred by the statute of limitations.
