

Concerning State Educator Certificates for School Marriage and Family Therapist

Section 1. The Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies are amended by adding new sections 10-145d-566a to 10-145d-566f, inclusive, as follows:

(NEW) Sec. 10-145d-566a. Applicable Provisions under Regulations Concerning State Educator Certificates, Permits and Authorizations

For purposes of sections 10-145d-566b to 10-145d-566f, inclusive, of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, the definitions, general conditions, code of professional responsibility, types of certificates, special authorizations, reissuance of certificates, and the appeal process provisions as described in Part I, Part II, Part III, Part IV, Part V, and Part XVII of sections 10-145d-400 to 10-145d-619, inclusive, of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies shall apply.

(NEW) Sec. 10-145d-566b. When required

This endorsement for school marriage and family therapist shall be required for anyone serving in the employ of a board of education as a school marriage and family therapist. Provision of services by the holder of this certificate for school marriage and family therapist will be determined by the school building administrator and in consultation with the planning and placement team, as defined in Section 10-76a-1 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, or in accordance with alternative procedures and programs, e.g., student assistance team, child study team, etc., before a child is referred to a planning and placement team as described in Section 10-76d-7 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies. A licensed marital and family therapist providing services to a board of education through a personal services contract and not as an employee of the board of education shall not be required to hold a valid certificate.

(NEW) Sec. 10-145d-566c. Validity of certificate

This certificate for school marriage and family therapist authorizes the holder to provide services to families, parents and guardians in order to support the academic or behavioral functioning of the student. The holder of this certificate for school marriage and family therapist shall not be authorized to teach unless the person holds an appropriate teaching endorsement.

(NEW) Sec. 10-145d-566d. Initial educator certificate requirements

To receive an initial educator certificate to serve as a school marriage and family therapist, the applicant shall meet the following requirements:

- (a) Holds a bachelor's degree from an approved institution;
- (b) Holds a master's degree from an approved institution with a planned program in marriage and family therapy accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education (COAMFTE);
- (c) Has successfully met Praxis I requirements;

 - (5) 300 hours of school-based marriage and family therapy practicum jointly supervised by faculty of a program accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education (COAMFTE) and a special service staff member of a board of education;
- (f) Has completed a course of study in special education comprised of not fewer than 36 clock hours, which shall include study in understanding the growth and development of exceptional children, including handicapped and gifted and talented children and children who may require special education, and methods for identifying, planning for and working effectively with special-needs children in the regular classroom.

(NEW) Sec. 10-145d-566e. Provisional educator certificate requirements

To receive a provisional educator certificate for school marriage and family therapist, an applicant shall present evidence of meeting the preparation and eligibility requirements for an initial educator certificate, and evidence of having completed the following:

- (a) 10 school months of successful service under the initial educator certificate or interim educator certificate; or
- (b) Within 10 years prior to application, at least 30 school months of successful service as a school marriage and family therapist in the employ of a public school in another state, approved nonpublic school in Connecticut or nonpublic school approved by the appropriate governing body in another state.

(NEW) Sec. 10-145d-566f. Professional educator certificate requirements

To receive a professional educator certificate for school marriage and family therapist, an applicant shall present evidence of having completed 30 school months of successful service under a provisional educator certificate or interim provisional educator certificate.
