In the last 5 years, more than 1,900 new educators of color have been hired in Connecticut. However, the racial, ethnic, cultural, and linguistic diversity of Connecticut's educator workforce does not reflect the diversity of its students. Public Act 23-167 §10 now requires each local and regional board of education to submit an increasing educator diversity plan to the CSDE not later than March 15, 2024.
