

4 Ways to Support your English Learner at Home

- 1. Maintain your native language or heritage language. Research shows that English learners with a firm foundation in their native language learn English faster and more easily.
- 2. Be assured that being bilingual is an asset. Bilingual people are good decision makers, have strong thinking skills, and earn higher salaries than monolingual individuals.
- 3. Get involved in your child's school. Join parent organizations, volunteer, attend school events.
- 4. Develop your own English skills. Take ESL classes with your local Adult Education program.
