

Responsibilities of District Contact Person for Healthy Food Certification

The district contact person is the point person designated by the school district who is responsible for coordinating the implementation and monitoring of the district's Healthy Food Certification (HFC) under Section 10-215f of the Connecticut General Statutes, and ensuring that all competitive foods available for sale to students comply with these requirements. This person is indicated in section 6A, "HFC District Contact Information," of the district's annual HFC Statement in the CSDE's Connecticut Online Application and Claiming System for Child Nutrition Programs \(CNP System\).

The HFC district contact person is part of the CSDE's HFC email distribution list and receives all communications from the Connecticut State Department of Education (CSDE) regarding HFC, such as allowable food and beverage items, implementation resources, documentation requirements, training, and information regarding HFC implementation.

The district contact person is responsible for:

- understanding the requirements of the Connecticut Nutrition Standards \(CNS\), HFC, and the federal and state laws for competitive foods (refer to the CSDE's Requirements for Competitive Foods in HFC Public Schools);
- completing the CSDE's Complying with Healthy Food Certification recorded training modules and maintaining the knowledge check for each module to document participation;
- disseminating information regarding the HFC requirements to all individuals who coordinate sales of foods and beverages to students, such as the school food service director, cafeteria managers, culinary arts teachers, athletic directors, family and consumer sciences teachers, parent groups, school organizations, and individuals who coordinate fundraising activities, school stores, kiosks, school-based enterprises, vending machines, and any other sales of foods and beverages to students in the district;
- being familiar with the CSDE's List of Acceptable Foods and Beverages webpage (a brand-specific lists of food products that meet the CNS and beverages that meet the requirements of Section 10-221q of the Connecticut General Statutes) and sharing with all individuals and groups that coordinate sales of foods and beverages to students;
- ensuring that the district's procedures for sales of competitive foods requires prior approval for all foods made from scratch and that the applicable CNS compliance documentation is maintained on file (refer to the CSDE's Guidance on Evaluating Recipes for Compliance with the Connecticut Nutrition Standards and How to Evaluate Foods Made from Scratch for Compliance with the Connecticut Nutrition Standards);
- being aware of the CSDE's HFC resources available on the CSDE's HFC webpage and sharing with all individuals who coordinate sales of foods and beverages to students;

Responsibilities of District Contact Person for HFC

- responding to questions from district staff and contacting the CSDE for technical assistance as necessary;
- providing training and technical assistance as needed for individuals who coordinate sales of foods and beverages to students;
- responding to requests from the CSDE for information and documentation related to HFC;
- coordinating district procedures for monitoring compliance with HFC;
- assisting district spokesperson with media-related inquiries regarding the district's HFC and the federal and state laws for competitive foods; and
- coordinating the district's annual HFC documentation materials for submission to the CSDE, including completion of the online HFC Compliance Form, and providing lists of food and beverages sold to students (refer to "Responsibilities for HFC Documentation" below).

Responsibilities for HFC Documentation

All districts participating in HFC must submit the online HFC Compliance Form to the CSDE by November 30 of each year. In addition to the HFC Compliance Form, certain school districts must also submit lists of foods and beverages sold to students from all sources in the district (refer to the CSDE's Districts Required to Submit Lists of Foods and Beverages for Healthy Food Certification Documentation).

The district contact person is responsible for collecting the required information to submit the annual HFC Compliance Survey, in consultation with the appropriate individuals responsible for the district's sources of food and beverage sales to students. Examples include:

- school food service director;
- cafeteria managers;
- operators of vending machines;
- operators of school stores, kiosks, and other school-based enterprises;
- coordinators of school fundraising activities;
- parent groups;
- athletic directors;
- culinary arts teachers (if foods are sold to students);
- family and consumer sciences teachers (if foods are sold to students); and
- any other individuals who coordinate food sales to students.

The online HFC Compliance Form and list of districts required to submit foods and beverages are available in the "Documents/Forms" section of the Healthy Food Certification webpage. For more information on HFC documentation, refer to the CSDE's resources, Guidance for Submitting Lists of
