First Business

1. Minutes

The Commission, after a motion by Michael Desmond, seconded by Sarah Fryxell, Esq., voted 3-0 to adopt the minutes from the May 26, 2016 meeting. Mildred Torres-Ferguson and Tracy L. Dayton, Esq. abstained from the vote as they were not present at that meeting.

Old Business

2. Update Richard Grimaldi Request

Jeffrey Beckham provided an update regarding Richard Grimaldi's request for training. He advised that, pursuant to the Commission's request at the May meeting, he contacted Attorney Owen Eagen who had provided the previous training. He indicated that he would be willing to provide training to Mr. Grimaldi at the Commission's pleasure. He is not available until the fall. Attorney Eagen indicated that he would expect to be compensated and mentioned that he would consider offering a discount. Attorney Beckham and Attorney Eagen did not discuss numbers. W. Martyn Philpot, Jr., Esq. suggested that, in light of DAS Commissioner Currey's letter to the Commissioners regarding this issue, Mr. Grimaldi's training would be appropriately conducted during the next scheduled training for new marshal appointees.

New Business

3. Training

Jeffrey Beckham provided an update regarding the pending capias training being held at Manchester Community College. DAS provided $14,000 for the mandatory capias training which is held every three years. The training this year included a new module provided by Child Support Enforcement which gave significant insight into how the Judicial Branch operates. Attorney Beckham advised that the Commission office looks forward to facilitating ongoing meetings between the marshals and the Judicial Branch.
