

By His Excellency Dannel P. Malloy, Governor: an Official Statement

*W*HEREAS, once again the University of Connecticut has instilled pride and excitement into the hearts and minds of loyal Husky fans throughout our state as the UConn women's basketball team has advanced to the NCAA Final Four; and

*W*HEREAS, the UConn women, led by Hall of Fame Coach Geno Auriemma, have reached their fifth straight and thirteenth overall Final Four and hope to bring an 8th Women's National Championship back to Connecticut; and

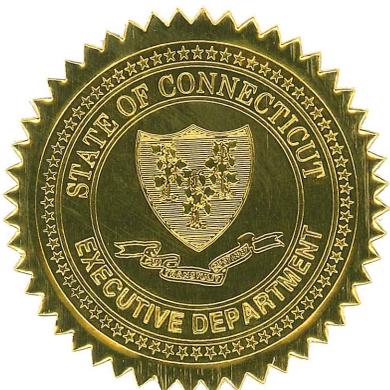

*W*HEREAS, in recognition of the women's semi-final game against Notre Dame on Sunday, I, Governor Dannel P. Malloy, have designated Friday, March 30 through Sunday, April 1, 2012, as HUSKY WEEKEND and will proudly extend Husky Weekend through Tuesday if the UConn women make it to the Championship Game; and

*W*HEREAS, I ask all citizens to show your Husky Pride and wish our team well by wearing your favorite UConn Huskies gear, flying a UConn flag outside your home, displaying a sign in your windows or front yards, and wearing blue and white; now

*T*HEREFORE, I, Dannel P. Malloy, Governor of the State of Connecticut, do hereby officially designate Friday, March 30 through Sunday, April 1, 2012 as in the State of Connecticut.
