In the wake of the brutal and senseless killing of twenty children and six adults at the Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, people from across the world have been moved to make millions of dollars in charitable contributions. In response to this outpouring, dozens of organizations and individuals have established funds or conducted fundraising events to collect these contributions. Like so many, we are heartened by this outpouring of sympathy and support.

Consistent with the responsibilities to oversee charitable activities and fundraising in Connecticut, we are requesting information about your organization's fundraising and charitable efforts. In all circumstances, donors need information to help make informed giving decisions and to understand the purposes for which their gifts will be used. This is particularly important - and challenging - when so much money is being raised so quickly.

To promote transparency and encourage further giving, we request that you provide responses to the questions in the attached document. We understand that you are currently responding to needs of the victims, and do not want to distract you from your efforts. Accordingly, we have attempted to limit our questions to those that can be answered with limited effort and disruption, but which will provide important information to the public at this stage of the relief efforts. In the coming months, we expect to reach out to you for additional information, including more detail about how donations have been expended and the steps taken to prevent fraud and/or misuse of resources. This is a voluntary request for information, but we strongly urge you to participate so this important information can be provided, through our websites or other means, to the giving public.

Please email your responses to the questions in the attached document to Nancy.Santoro@ct.gov by April 12, 2013. If you are unable to provide responses by this date because of your ongoing relief efforts or for some other reason, please let us know. An electronic copy of the attached document may be downloaded at <http://www.ct.gov/ag/lib/ag/charties/sandyhookfundraising-web.doc> or obtained by sending an email to Nancy.Santoro@ct.gov. You can reach us at (860) 808-5020.

We look forward to working with you in promoting the best interests of the Newtown community and all victims of the Sandy Hook tragedy.

Sincerely,

GEORGE JEPSEN

Dear Attorney General Jepsen:

I am responding to your communication of March 28th concerning the Sandy Hook donations.

As you are aware, the Artists Collective is one of the three organizations selected by the parents of Ana Marquez Green requesting that donations be sent in lieu of flowers.

The Artists Collective was selected because the child's Father, Jimmy Greene, was a student here at the AC as a young teenager, was mentored by my husband, and graduated from the Jackie McLean Institute, Hart School, University of Hartford prior to his professional career.

Both parents kept a very close relationship with me and the Artists Collective and we were pleased and honored that they chose to honor the Collective in this manner knowing that the donations would be used to assist our programs in serving other youth and children.

We understand the need for the inquiry; however it does not apply to our organization.

I would also like to take this time to thank you for attending our Shades of Harlem dinner/cabaret extravaganza this past December and hope you will join us again at future events.

Yours sincerely,

Dollie McLean
