10/03/19 Hartford, CT 230 Capen St. dwelling

fire—HEAVY FIRE IN THE NORTH END: Hartford “B” Tour firefighters went to work just before the end of their tour Thursday morning on Capen Street. Companies responded to 230 Capen Street after numerous calls were received reporting a structural fire at that location. Units arrived with heavy fire showing from a two and-a-half story dwelling which was threatening a nearby exposure structure. Firefighters took aggressive action sweeping the exposure structure and holding the blaze to the building of origin. Heavy fire soon broke through the structure’s roof, requiring a brief elevated master stream operation.

10/30/19 West Haven, CT—221 Tetlow St. fatal dwelling fire—Fire fighters arrived to find smoke showing from both floors of a two story, private dwelling. They were alerted while enroute that one occupant was reported trapped. Members of Truck 1 arrived and started forcible entry and searches under colliers mansion conditions. One handicapped victim was located on the first floor. Members had difficulty with removal due to the hoarding conditions. The fire rapidly extended to the second floor and through the roof. Firefighters were withdrawn due to the conditions and darkened down the fire with a quick exterior attack. The victim was pronounced at the scene. The cause of the fire is under investigation by the state and local fire marshal.
