

Region IV
Strengthening Families Case Practice Model Regional Implementation Team

After Action Review

An After Action Review (ARR) is a structured de-brief process for analyzing what happened and how it can we improve. After each meeting the Strengthening Families Implementation Team will look at the leader's/ facilitators intent, planning, preparation, action and review. Our focus is to remain on "intended" vs. actual results.

Positive / Sustain	Areas Needing Improvement
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In previous meeting we had change initiatives teams present on their progress - sustain this practice • Members feel that the teams are motivated and have positive energy • APHSA, Phil Basso did a great job presenting the Charter & Continuous Improvement Plan information/process. • Good suggestion came from group to bring all change initiatives team leads to one meeting. • Regina provided the group with a communications team update and it was well received particularly the education around marketing language. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some change initiatives teams may struggle with the target dates established for the submission of a Charter Template draft
