

Mr. Dannell Lyne has been a partner with Marks Paneth, LLP since November 2017 when his prior firm, Dylewsky, Goldberg & Brenner, LLC, merged into Marks Paneth. Having joined Dylewsky, Goldberg & Brenner, LLC in January of 2010 and becoming a partner in January 2012, Mr. Lyne brings extensive experience in tax planning and compliance for high-net-worth individuals, in particular executives in the financial services industry, investment partnerships and international matters. Before joining Marks Paneth, Mr. Lyne was previously a tax director with a venture capital firm in Westchester County, New York, where he successfully helped manage fund families with assets of over $1.5 billion and became proficient in tax laws for the countries of India, Israel, and Mauritius. Prior to his employment with the venture capital firm, Mr. Lyne applied his expertise with a "Big Four" accounting firm in Stamford, CT as well as a regional accounting firm in New York City. He is currently a board of director for Discovering Amistad, Inc & The Westport Museum for History and Culture. Mr. Lyne received a Bachelor of Science in Accounting (CPA) from Utica College of Syracuse University, and a Master of Science with distinction in Taxation from Long Island University. He is a member of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the American Institute of Public Accountants. Mr. Lyne and his wife have two teenage children and live in Trumbull, CT.