

CONNECTICUT DEPARTMENT OF
CONSUMER PROTECTION

December 27, 2020

For Immediate Release

Pursuant to Executive Order 7W as it relates to Ninety-day provisional permits, on December 24, the following applications were reviewed and approved (some with outstanding requirements) for issuance of provisional permits and/or for requested extensions of provisional permits:

None

In addition, the department reviewed and took no action on these requests for provisional permits and have assigned these files to agents for follow-up:

None

In addition, the department reviewed and approved the issuance of the following final permit with no outstanding requirements and/or transfers of interest/stock (TOS/TOI):

LCA-8361 Jerkyz, Stamford

LIW-506 Brescome Barton Inc., North Haven (TOS)

Sincerely,

John J. Suchy, Director

CONNECTICUT DEPARTMENT OF

CONSUMER PROTECTION

450 Columbus Boulevard, Suite 901 Hartford, CT 06103 | (860) 713-6100

www.ct.gov/DCP |    @ctdcp

The Department of Consumer Protection is an Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Employer

