January 11, 2018
Case No. 2016-910
Permit LCA.7307

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

This matter involves a restaurant liquor permit issued to El Flamboyán Restaurant & Bar, 1001 E. Main Street, Bridgeport, Connecticut. A formal administrative hearing was held before the Department of Consumer Protection on December 14, 2017. Despite proper notice, the Respondent did not appear.

The allegations against the permit premises arose from a complaint from the Bridgeport Police Department alleging the violation of Section 30-6-A24b(b) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies. It is alleged that on or about October 20, 2016, two patrons at El Flamboyán Restaurant & Bar were served a bucket of beer and were consuming the bucket alone. Liquor Control Agent Kula testified at the hearing and stated there were two separate instances of this occurring.

Based upon the testimony and evidence presented, we hereby find there has been no violation of the regulation as alleged. Section 30-6-A24b(b)(2) specifies drinks by the pitcher may be offered to two or more persons. The charges are hereby dismissed.
