Legal Division- Updates

Members of the Board have received inquires from individuals who filed complaints against professional engineers or land surveyors and have either not heard from the department or their complaints have been dismissed.

Chairman D'Andrea stated that the Board is concerned about those complaints that were dismissed, especially if they pertained to the practice of engineering or land surveying that fall under the Board's regulations.

Attorney Elisa Nahas explained the complaint review process where Complaints begin with the Trade Practices Unit and if any legal action is warranted, they are forwarded to the legal division. Attorney Nahas, stated that she has seen a reduction of complaints being forwarded to the legal division.

Chairman D'Andrea stated that the Board would like a report on the number of complaints that have come into the Department, along with the nature of those complaints and the alleged violations.

Attorney Nahas stated that she will speak with Commissioner Farrell and the Director of the Trade Practices Unit for a resolution.
