Instructions for State Closing-Out Sale License

Definitions

- “State Closing-Out Sale” means all sales advertised, presented or held forth under the designation of “going out of business”, “selling out”, “liquidation”, “lost out lease”, “forced to vacate”, “moving to a new location”, or any other designation of like meaning.
- Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 407a of the Connecticut General Statutes, no person or business entity shall advertise, offer for sale or sell a stock of goods, wares or merchandise under the description of a state closing-out sale unless such person or entity has first obtained a license from the Department of Consumer Protection.
- No goods, wares or merchandise other than those listed in inventory shall be included in any state closing-out sale.
- A separate State Closing-Out Sale license must be obtained for each specific location at which such sale is to be conducted.

Instructions:

- A completed State Closing-Out Sale application must be filed with the Department of Consumer Protection at least five (5) days in advance of the sale.
- A separate state closing-out sale application is to be filed for each specific location at which such a sale is to be conducted.
- A state closing-out sale may be conducted for no more than ninety (90) days.
- If an outside liquidator or promoter is assisting you with this sale, the promoter must first obtain a promoter’s registration from this department, and you must enter into a signed written contract with the promoter. The contract must be dated and signed by both parties and contains the entire agreement between you and the promoter. The contract must also contain the name and address of the promoter.
- You are required to indicate your State Closing-Out Sale license number and ending date of the sale in and/or on ALL advertising.
- The State Closing-Out Sale license certificate must be posted in a conspicuous location at the place of sale.

Application Fee:

- A check or money order in the amount of $100.00 made payable to “Treasurer, State of Connecticut” must accompany the application. Application fees are non-refundable.
