CLOSING-OUT SALES PROMOTER REGISTRATION

Under the provisions of Chapter 407a of the Connecticut General Statutes, no person shall act as a promoter for any closing-out sale unless he had first obtained a registration to do so from the Department of Consumer Protection. "Promoter" means any person who performs or offers to perform for a person holding a closing-out sale any service to facilitate or assist in such sale, including but not limited to advertising or sales. "Closing-Out Sale" means all sales advertised, represented or held forth under the designation of going out of business, selling out, liquidation, lost our lease, forced to vacate, moving to a new location, or any other designation of like meaning.

To comply with the statutory requirements, the following procedures must be followed:

1. Complete the Closing-Out Sale Promoter registration application and submit to the Department of Consumer Protection at least five (5) days in advance of the date of any closing-out sale you intend to promote, or otherwise assist in conducting. A promoter registration is valid for one year from the date of issue
2. The registration fee of $200.00 must be submitted by check or money order made payable to "Treasurer, State of Connecticut."
3. If you, as the promoter, are preparing the inventory to be submitted with the application for a closing-out sale license, you must:
 - a) Compile of detailed, itemized original inventory listing all goods, wares, merchandise on hand at the place where the sale is to be conducted using the enclosed form. Describe all items listed, including manufacturer's name, model number, quantity and wholesale cost of each item. A monthly inventory must be filed using the enclosed form for items sold for the duration of the sale. A final inventory of items sold or otherwise disposed of must be filed indicating to whom, specifically, the remaining merchandise dispersed. Inventory forms are provided with the closing-out sale license application and must be used. You must disclose any warehouse locations and submit a separate inventory for warehouse inventory.
4. As a promoter, you must enter into a written agreement with the closing-out sale licensee. A copy of your contract must be included with the license application for each closing-out sale. The contract must be dated and signed by both parties; contain the entire agreement between the promoter and licensee; and contain the name and address of the promoter.
5. If you, as the promoter, are preparing the advertising for the closing-out sale, you should be aware that:
 - a) The license number must be included in all advertising; and
 - b) The termination date of the sale must be included in all advertising. The closing-out sale license must be posted in the store in a conspicuous location at the point of sale.
6. Failure to comply with the provisions of Chapter 407a of the Connecticut General Statutes may result in the suspension or revocation of your promoter registration or the imposition of civil penalties.
