

2010 CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR REAL ESTATE APPRAISERS

- CONTINUING EDUCATION (CE) DOCUMENTATION DOES NOT HAVE TO BE SUBMITTED WITH THE 2010 APPLICATION FOR RENEWAL.
- IT MUST BE COMPLETED AND RETAINED BY THE APPRAISER FOR A STATE AUDIT.
- For compliance with 2010 Continuing Education all courses must be completed during the Continuing Education Cycle of May 1, 2008 to April 30, 2010.

REQUIREMENTS FOR STATE CERTIFIED AND PROVISIONAL LICENSED APPRAISERS

28 HOURS OF CONTINUING EDUCATION DUE

Ten (10) of the 28 hours must consist of a seven (7) hour Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) course taught by a Certified USPAP Instructor AND a three (3) hour Mandatory Connecticut Real Estate Appraisal Law Update module. The remaining eighteen (18) hours must be credit hours approved by the Connecticut Real Estate Appraisal Commission (CREAC).

IMPORTANT: Successful completion of fifteen (15) hours of USPAP CANNOT be used IN PLACE OF the 7 hour USPAP. If both the 15 hour and 7 hour USPAP are taken during the renewal cycle it is the 7 hour that is mandatory.

EXCEPTION FROM CONTINUING EDUCATION (CE)

- If you are a State Provisional Licensed Real Property Appraiser and your license was issued to you by the State after May 1, 2009, you are not required to complete the 2010 CE.
