

Tim Egan is an audit partner with KPMG LLP, resident in the firm's Stamford office, with more than 25 years of experience working with consumer and industrial market companies, particularly in the food, drink and consumer goods segment. His wide range of client experience includes providing audit and related services to Fortune 1000, mid-market and start-up companies, both public and private. He has also participated in numerous public debt and equity registration statements and public filings, including acquisitions of significant subsidiaries, debt offerings/refinancings, and equity offerings.

In addition to his direct client service responsibilities, Tim serves in a technical role as one of KPMG's IFRS Reviewing Partners, and is active with the firm's recruiting efforts, having served as partner-in-charge of recruiting in the Stamford office.

Tim serves on the Connecticut State Board of Accountancy, and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Connecticut Society of Certified Public Accountants. He also volunteers for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, having served on the Connecticut Board and currently as a member of the Executive Leadership Committee for the Light the Night program.

Tim received his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the Penn State University
