

MARTHA S. TRIPLETT, a public member of the State Board of Accountancy, is a practicing attorney and President of Delaney & Triplett, P.C., a Wallingford civil litigation law firm. Attorney Triplett has practiced with this firm and its predecessors since 2002. Prior to that, she served as in-house counsel to Nationwide Insurance Company and its insureds for 12 years. Attorney Triplett received BA and law degrees from Vanderbilt University. She is a life fellow of the Connecticut Bar Foundation, a member of the Connecticut Trial Lawyers Association, a member of the Superior Court's Civil Commission, and has received Martindale-Hubbell legal directory's highest rating for legal ability and ethics (AV).