

ARCHITECT LICENSE REINSTATEMENT PROCEDURE FOR LICENSES LAPSED THREE (3) YEARS OR MORE.

1.) The Department of Consumer Protection must be in receipt of all past-due license fees, including late charges, in the form of a check or money order made payable to “Treasurer, State of Connecticut”.

2.) The applicant must complete and submit a new Application For Architect’s License and indicate on the same (where noted) that you were previously licensed in Connecticut. The Application is available at www.ct.gov/dcp.

4.) Applicant needs to submit a notarized letter stating that he/she has not signed or sealed any drawings or otherwise practiced architecture and/or offered architectural services in the State of Connecticut during the period in which his license was lapsed. If the applicant has practiced architecture and/or offered architectural services, then the letter must state such.

The letter must also state the reason why the applicant let his/her license lapse and be accompanied by a resume. This resume is required to demonstrate to the Board that the applicant has maintained sufficient credentials in the areas of education, experience, and training in architecture during the period in which his/her license lapsed. All work indicated on the resume must be accompanied by dates associated with each project and indicate, in detail, the applicant’s role, on each. A current NCARB Certificate Record may be provided in lieu of a resume.

5.) Please send all correspondence to the following address:
