

SAVE THE DATE

Connecticut Secondary Transition Symposium: Every Voice Matters

Friday, September 20, 2019 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. &
Saturday, September 21, 2019 8:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Central Connecticut State University
New Britain, CT

The Connecticut Secondary Transition Symposium Planning Committee is pleased to announce the 5th Annual Symposium focused on helping school districts improve their secondary transition practices. The first day of the symposium will include sessions for professionals, students, and families. The second day of the symposium is designed specifically for families and students and is being held on a Saturday this year.

Topics include, but are not limited to:

- Transition Assessment
- Person-Centered Planning
- Creating Effective Transition IEPs
- Assistive Technology
- Self-Advocacy/Soft Skills
- Employment Options
- Working with Adult Service Agencies
- Transition for Individuals with ASD
- WIOA
- Preparing for College

Who Should Attend?

Parents/Families/Caregivers along with their Middle and/or High School Students with Disabilities, Transition Specialists, Special Education Teachers, Vocational/ Career Teachers, and School Administrators are welcome on both days.

For more information, please contact:

Missy Wrigley, SERC,
860-632-1485, ext. 397 or wrigley@ctserc.org

Sponsored By:

