“ALL Means ALL: Building a Great Life for Everyone in our Communities”

A Conference for Self-Advocates, Parents, Caregivers, Siblings and Providers

Tuesday, April 7, 2020
Red Lion Hotel, Cromwell, CT

CALL FOR PRESENTERS

We invite families, advocates, providers and agencies from various fields and organizations throughout the state to submit a presenter application on topics related to building a great life for everyone in our communities, including those with the most significant disabilities.

We are committed to featuring experienced, well-informed and diverse presenters on a variety of topics. Presentations can include individual presenters, panel presentations by several speakers, or a forum/discussion format.

Presenters please submit your application at:
