Reminder: MCC Regional Job Fair is Saturday Morning at Manchester Community College

WETHERSFIELD, April 12, 2012 – More than 40 companies will be at Manchester Community College to participate in MCC's Regional Job Fair on Saturday, April 14. The event – co-sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor, Manchester Community College, the Journal Inquirer, WDRC AM/FM and the MCC Alumni Association – will be held in the College's Great Path Academy Gymnasium from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Among the participating companies will be Whole Foods Market, Community Solutions, Prudential, DATTCO and Home Goods Distribution Center. Also on hand will be a team of nationally certified résumé writers from the Connecticut Department of Labor who will review and critique visitor's résumés free of charge.

Admission is free, as is parking. Job seekers are reminded to bring along plenty of résumés, dress to impress, and be ready to meet on site with prospective employers. For a complete listing of attending employers and the jobs they have to offer or for more information, please visit www.ctjobfairs.com. Directions to this event and others are also posted on the site.
