Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

Adult Vocational Programs, Inc., (AVP) is a private, non-profit agency committed to providing the highest quality day services to people with developmental disabilities and other challenges. AVP, Inc. appreciates the diversity and uniqueness of every individual and his/her contribution to the community. Individuals are supported and encouraged to actively participate in their communities as it is felt that these opportunities provide challenging, rewarding, and valued experiences.

AVP, Inc. looks to provide meaningful, paid work for individuals with disabilities in real job settings, with ongoing supports. It offers group and individual supported employment opportunities in a variety of work settings, primarily in greater Middlesex County. Vocational services include both group supported employment and individual placements, job development, and follow along services. Some of the industries served by AVP, Inc. clients include food service, automotive care, piece work, farming, and landscaping.

Additionally, AVP, Inc. operates a recreation and leisure day program in Chester, CT offering full time or part time placement. Participants in the day program establish their monthly activity calendar to include field trips, community recreation, and in house activities, allowing for daily options within the monthly calendar. Some part time employment activities are also available through the day program.
