

State Historic Preservation Office Fellowship Application

Fellowship Description

The fellowships are intended for professional development and learning opportunities not available or reimbursable from the recipient's employer. Eligible activities include, but are not limited to: attendance at conferences or workshops, field schools, and consulting/coaching fees for training activities. At least two fellowships will be awarded for amounts up to $2,500.00. The activity for which you are applying must occur within one year of the fellowship award.

Successful recipients will be required to complete the following:

- * Attend the 2019 State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) conference.
- * Provide SHPO with proof of attendance at the approved event or activity, within 30 days of completion.
- * Write an article about your experience or research topic to share in one of SHPO's newsletters or social media sites within 60 days of completing the activity.
- * Give a presentation on what you learned to SHPO and/or a local audience within 60 days of the activity; or at SHPO's 2020 annual conference.

Eligible Applicants

Applicants must meet the following criteria to be considered for a fellowship:

- * You must be a Connecticut resident.
- * You must be currently engaged, either through employment or an educational program, in historic preservation or a related field in Connecticut. Related fields may include archaeology, architecture, engineering, history, landscape architecture, materials conservation, museum studies, municipal or public administration, non-profit administration, and planning. Priority will be given to emerging and mid-career professionals. The State of Connecticut is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Applicants affiliated with Minority/Women's/Small Business Enterprises are encouraged to apply.
