The Law and LGBTQIA+ Considerations

June 13th, 2023 | 9am – 10:30am
1.5 CECs | Virtual

With trainers: Zachary D. Schurin, Esq. &
Melinda B. Kaufmann, Esq.

This seminar is designed to give attendees an overview of the emerging landscape of legal protections that must be provided to transgender, non-binary and gender nonconforming individuals in Connecticut. Speakers will review key state and federal court decisions relating to transgender rights including the United States Supreme Court's seminal 2020 decision in Bostock v. Clayton County, Georgia, as well as legal guidance from the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission (EEOC), the Connecticut Commission on Human Resources (CHRO) and other state and federal agencies. The seminar will also include an overview of suggested best practices for accommodating transgender and gender nonconforming employees and clients in light of the latest legal guidance.
