About the Connecticut Food Policy Council

The Connecticut Food Policy Council was created by the Legislature in 1997 to address issues related to food production, food distribution and consumer concerns in Connecticut. The Council is formally housed within the State Department of Agriculture. Members include Commissioners or designees from the state departments of Agriculture, Administrative Services, Education, Social Services, Transportation, and Public Health, as well as representatives from agriculture, anti-hunger programs, the University of Connecticut Cooperative Extension System and the retail and wholesale food industry.

This event is supported by the Harvard Pilgrim HealthCare Foundation and End Hunger CT!
