Department of Correction inmate passes away due to COVID-19 virus

Tuesday, January 12, 2021

An individual under the supervision of the Connecticut Department of Correction passed away from complications related to the novel coronavirus.

Due to medical privacy laws, the name of the individual is not being released.

The 53-year-old male had been transferred from the Agency's Osborn Correctional Institution to an outside hospital for treatment on November 27, 2020, where he succumbed to his illnesses on Monday evening, January 11, 2021.

He first entered into the Department of Correction's custody in 1984, and most recently on April 24, 2015. He was serving a six-year, six-month sentence for Robbery in the First Degree. This was his eighth sentenced period of incarceration. He was denied parole on April 17, 2020. His maximum release date was July 20, 2021.
