DBE Program

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)
For First Time Connecticut Applicants

Q: If my firm is certified with the Connecticut Department of Administrative Services (DAS) am I automatically certified in the DBE Program?

A: No. They are two different programs with different rules and regulations. The CT DAS Supplier Diversity Program is a state program, whereas the DBE program is a US Department of Transportation program. There is no reciprocity between the two programs.

Q: A contract is coming up. Can my application be expedited?

A: Unfortunately, we cannot expedite any DBE applications. All applications are reviewed in the order in which they were received.

Q: Do I have to submit all the required paperwork in the “Documents Checklist”?

A: If you are a Connecticut firm and you are applying for DBE Certification for the first time, you must submit all the forms that are applicable to your firm under the section “All Applicants;“ next, you must submit the appropriate forms specific to your company structure (i.e. partnership, corporation, LLC).
