Draft 2009 LRP: Planning Process

- Mandated by Section 134 of title 23 U.S. Code & Section 8 of title 49 U.S. Code

- Prepared by designated Metropolitan Planning Organizations (MPOs) (There are 11 in Connecticut.)
  - Submitted to Federal Highway Administration
  - Must cover a future 20-year period
  - Must address the same 8 factors listed for statewide LRP
  - Must be updated at least every 3 years (All were updated in 2007)
  - Must be developed through a proactive public involvement process

Documents Considered: Regional Long-Range Transportation Plans
Mandated by Public Acts 01-5 & 06-136

Prepared by the Transportation Strategy Board

- Proposes a transportation strategy to guide the State for the next 20 years
- Proposes actions and tactics to achieve those strategies during the next 10 years
- Must include a prioritized list of projects to implement strategy
- Estimates capital and operating investments to implement those actions
- Suggests the revenue sources to fund those investments
Guiding Principles:

- A balanced transportation system that provides mobility for people and goods in a way which meets the needs of users, businesses and commerce is essential.

- Transportation system must be multi-modal and provide options to the single passenger automobile.

- Transportation system must be maintained and preserved.

- Transportation policy must also reflect the economic, social and environmental needs and policies of the state. Planning of transportation infrastructure and improvements must support both economic development and a sustainable environment.
Guiding Principles:

- Transportation system must be flexible and responsive enough to meet the transportation needs of a wide variety of customers, including those with special needs.

- The provision of accurate, timely information about transportation systems and services is essential to the success of the state’s transportation system. It must leverage innovation and advances in technology in order to improve service and control costs.

- Transportation and development investments must support responsible growth, transit-oriented development and the State Plan of Conservation and Development.

- Transportation planning, at all levels, must be comprehensive, inclusive and visionary and must maximize the options available to decision makers. Cooperation between local, state and federal organizations must be encouraged. Whenever possible, transportation investments should be coordinated with similar planning and investments in neighboring states.
