

HIV Positive Residents' Care Rates by G2Z Target Populations, Connecticut, 2015-2019

HIV Positive Residents' Suppression Rates by G2Z Target Populations, Connecticut, 2015-2019

Note: Includes specified persons aged  $\geq 13$  living with HIV in Connecticut in the specified year. Persons who have at least one CD4, viral load or HIV-1 genotype test during the specific time year are considered as linked to care during that time. Specified persons aged  $\geq 13$  whose most recent viral load test result is  $< 200$  copies/ml in the specified year are considered virally suppressed. Source: HIV surveillance registry for cases reported through December 2020.