

The Connecticut Young Worker Health and Safety Team is pleased to announce 13 contest winners and 10 runner ups for his/her creative artwork that demonstrated health and safety practices to help teens and other workers avoid hazards in their workplaces. Contest winners received $130, and their school and name are featured in a statewide calendar to promote young worker health and safety awareness in Connecticut (see attached).

Calendars were distributed to teens, parents, teachers, trade union patrons and sponsors, and other health and safety professionals throughout Connecticut. To learn more about the CT Young Worker Health and Safety Team
