

A HEALTHY HOME

from the ground up

Radon is a natural, radioactive gas that is very common in Connecticut. It comes from the soil and through the ground floors of houses. You can find out if there is radon in your home with a simple test. Testing kits are available at no or low-cost and winter is the best time to test.

For more information,
please visit ct.gov/radon

