History

CONNECTICUT VETERANS HALL OF FAME

History

The Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame was established to increase the awareness of the lifetime contributions of Veterans after completion of honorable military service. The Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame is not a military hall of fame; instead it seeks to recognize veterans for the countless contributions to society. Those selected for induction are Veterans who honorably served their county through military service and who continue to serve and inspire their communities and the state.

Each year the committee selects inductees from applications received from across the state and nation. These Veterans have been leaders in a variety of areas such as arts, education, public service, volunteer activities, and community and business leadership. Most importantly, they have all made a significant impact on the lives of others and in their communities.

To be eligible for the Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame, the nominee must have served their country honorably in a branch of military service, but the focus is on the nominee's continued serve to their communities, Veterans, state and nation after discharge.

The Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame is administered and sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Veterans Affairs and the Connecticut Military Department on behalf of the Office of the Governor.

The first class of the Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame was inducted in November 2005. To date, One Hundred and fifty-six Veterans are honored in the Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame.

Ceremony

The induction Ceremony will honor each new class of inductees to the Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame. The Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony will take place annually at the State Capitol. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Commissioner of the Department of Veterans Affairs and the Adjutant General of the Connecticut National Guard will preside at the induction of Veterans into the Hall of Fame. Each inductee will be presented with a commemorative medallion and certificate confirming their induction. Their names will then be added to the Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame Plaque located in the State Legislative Office Building.

The Selection Process

The Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame inducts Connecticut Veterans each year who have honorably served their country through military service and continue to serve and inspire with their accomplishments throughout their lifetime. An Executive Committee is appointed to select eligible Veterans who have ties to Connecticut. The Executive Committee is chaired by the Commissioner of the Department of Veterans Affairs and comprised of the Adjutant General of the Connecticut National Guard; three appointees selected by the Governor, one of whom will be a member of the Connecticut Veterans Hall of Fame; the co-chairs and the ranking members of the General Assembly's Veterans Affairs Committee. Applications for induction are solicited from all Connecticut citizens and according to the Nomination Guidelines. The application guidelines include, but are not limited to:
