DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINT PROCESS

As required by section 46a-68-89 of the Affirmative Action Regulations, this complaint process addresses complaints alleging discrimination, including but not limited to harassment, based upon any legally protected class, including: race; color; religious creed; age; sex; pregnancy; sexual orientation; gender identity or expression; marital status; national origin; ancestry; intellectual disability; genetic information; learning disability; physical disability (including, but not limited to, blindness); mental disability (past/present history thereof); status as a victim of domestic violence; military or veteran status; or criminal record in state employment.

Retaliation complaints are also covered under the DVA discrimination complaint process. Additionally, any member of the public alleging discrimination in the provision of services, activities, programs, or benefits of the Department of Veterans Affairs related to a qualifying disability may use the DVA Discrimination Complaint Process.

The DVA Discrimination Complaint Process will be distributed annually to all employees and will be posted on both the agency's intranet and internet website. All employees shall also be notified of the right to file with state enforcement agency Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities (CHRO) and that such complaints shall be filed with the CHRO within 300 days of the alleged discriminatory treatment. Each new employee upon appointment shall receive and acknowledge a copy of the DVA Discrimination Complaint Process.

*Any person requiring a copy of this process in an alternative format should contact Ashley Burke, Human Resources Specialist- EEO, at (860) 713-5445 or Ashley.Burke@ct.gov.

All employees are expected to cooperate fully with all administrative complaint investigations and any actions taken by DVA as a result of such investigations.

Counseling

DVA is committed to providing a work environment in which all people are treated with respect and dignity. Accordingly, the Human Resources Specialist- EEO (Ashley Burke) and staff of the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit are available to counsel employees with questions or concerns about DVA's antidiscrimination policies. Any individual requesting counseling will meet with the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit staff in a private area. Issues discussed during such counseling sessions will be kept as confidential as possible, consistent with DVA's legal obligations.

During such counseling sessions, participants will be advised of their rights under state and federal antidiscrimination laws and the right to file directly with the CHRO or other appropriate enforcement agencies to ensure that legal options for filing with these agencies are not foreclosed. Participants will be provided with applicable DVA policies and will be given a copy of the DVA Discrimination Complaint Process.

Ashley Burke, Human Resources Specialist-EEO, may be contacted at (860) 713-5445 or Ashley.Burke@ct.gov, and is located at 450 Columbus Boulevard, Suite 1501, Hartford, CT 06103.

Internal Complaint Process

All complaints alleging discrimination or retaliation should be filed as soon as possible after the alleged act of discrimination or retaliation, and, absent extenuating circumstances, no later than thirty (30) days from the date of the alleged act.

Complaints may be made verbally or in writing to the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit or the DVA Human Resources Division. The DVA Human Resources Division shall promptly forward any complaint alleging discrimination or retaliation to the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit for investigation. Accommodations to the filing process will be made available for persons with disabilities upon request. The filing date of the complaint is the day the complaint is received in the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit or Human Resources Division.

Each complaint must contain the following:

- The full name and work address of the respondent.
 - A brief description of the alleged act(s) of discrimination and location(s).
 - The date(s) of the alleged act(s).
 - The complainant's protected class(es).
 - The complainant's signature and date.
- 1) The Equal Employment Opportunity Unit shall notify the respondent (person(s) against whom the complaint is filed) that a complaint has been filed.
 - 2) The Equal Employment Opportunity Unit shall notify the Commissioner, and when appropriate, the Director(s) of the business center where the parties work, of necessary details of the allegations.
 - 3) A member of the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit shall try to facilitate conciliation between the complainant and the respondent where there is an indication that both parties are willing to work together towards a resolution.
 - 4) If no conciliatory agreement is possible, the Equal Employment Opportunity Unit shall continue with the investigatory process, keeping the Commissioner and Director of the business center fully informed of its progress.
 - 5) The Equal Employment Opportunity Unit shall investigate all complaints and prepare a summary of the findings for administrative review. The discrimination complaint process includes time frames not exceeding ninety (90) days for filing, processing, and resolution of such matters.
 - 6) The Equal Employment Opportunity Unit will notify the complainant, respondent and the parties listed above of the final determination in writing.
 - 7) All complainants retain the right to pursue a remedy through other administrative, collective bargaining, and/or legal channels or with appropriate enforcement agencies.
 - 8) If the investigation of the complaint indicates a policy violation occurred, the findings will be reviewed with the Commissioner (or designee), who will determine appropriate disciplinary action.

9) The Equal Opportunity Unit shall maintain all records of affirmative action complaints, investigations, outcomes, and their disposition. Records so retained shall be confidential, except where disclosure is required by law. These records are subject to examination by the Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities. DVA will notify the Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities annually, through its Affirmative Action Plan, of all discrimination complaints and any remedial actions taken. The Equal Employment Opportunity Unit will review all records of complaints and their dispositions annually to discern any pattern(s) of discrimination.

Protection from Retaliation

DVA strictly forbids retaliation against employees reporting discriminatory acts or participating in internal or external investigations. Agents of DVA shall not retaliate against, coerce, intimidate, threaten, harass, or interfere with any individual exercising or enjoying his or her rights under Federal or State law or because an individual aided or encouraged any other individual in the exercise of rights granted or protected by State or Federal law.

DVA will take any appropriate administrative actions necessary to prevent and/or correct any retaliatory measures. All employees are strongly urged to report all instances of retaliation to Ashley Burke, Human Resources Specialist- EEO, at (860)713-5445, Ashley.Burke@ct.gov or to Bethanne Watts, Human Resource Business Partner at (860)416-5281, Bethanne.Watts@ct.gov.
