

FOIC's Outreach Program

2019

On Sunday, August 18, 2019, attorneys from the Freedom of Information Commission participated in Hartford's South End Community Day, explaining to attendees, in English and Spanish, how to access public records and attend meetings. In addition, the attorneys distributed 40 donated backpacks filled with school supplies to children in attendance.

Attorneys Valicia Harmon & Danielle McGee in Hartford's South End Community Day.

