

Introducing OCC's Paralegal Specialist Megan J. Sullo

Monday, April 03, 2017

Megan J. Sullo joined the Office of Consumer Counsel (OCC) in February 2017 as a Paralegal Specialist, providing paralegal and administrative support to staff in dockets and court cases. Megan also handles record retention issues for the OCC as its designated Records Management Liaison Officer and also assists with the office's Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests. Before joining the OCC, Megan served as a Litigation Paralegal for over 10 years in private practice specializing in medical malpractice, personal injury, and employment law.

Please visit

OCC's website.

