

ADC Selects New Board Members, Vice President

Posted on July 10, 2020

Association of Defense Communities members recently voted to select Diane Rath and Karen Holt as new board members, as well as elect Bob Ross to the position of Vice President.

Diane Rath, who has been Executive Director of Alamo Area Council of Governments (AACOG) since 2014, will begin her first three-year term with ADC as a board member.

Karen Holt is also a new board member elected to serve a three-year term. Holt currently serves as Federal Installation Administrator, Harford County Office of Community & Economic Development (MD)

Ross, who is the Executive Director, Connecticut Office of Military Affairs, was elected to serve as ADC Vice President for a one year term. Ross replaces Maurice “Mo” McDonald who resigned from the position last year.

Additionally, Harry Kleiser was reelected for his second 3 year term.

Normally held at ADC's annual summit, this year's election and membership meeting were held virtually on Wednesday. The meeting also included a briefing by OEA Director, Patrick O'Brien.

For full biographical information of ADC board members, please visit the Board Bios web portal.