

STATE OF CONNECTICUT
TREASURER SHAWN T. WOODEN

As of Monday, March 16, public access to the State Office Building at 165 Capitol Ave. in Hartford will be restricted until further notice. This action is being taken in accordance with Governor Lamont's emergency declaration and in an effort to observe social distancing measures to ensure communal safety and to slow the spread of the novel coronavirus (COVID-19).

The agencies located in the State Office Building at 165 Capitol Avenue - which includes the offices of the Treasurer, the Secretary of the State, the Comptroller, and the Attorney General — will continue to serve the public, although many staff will be working remotely. Staff have been instructed to utilize video and teleconferencing options. In addition, delivered correspondence or packages will only be accepted at the ground level building entrance, rather than having such items delivered to the agency's offices. U.S. Postal Service or other courier services are encouraged.

We apologize for the inconvenience and hope to return to normal business as soon as the immediate threat to public health has subsided.

Thank you!
