GENERAL CERTIFICATES

General Certificates are for civilian instructor personnel invited by a department to instruct in specific, specialized areas (such as someone who conducts computer training). The applicant shall present any evidence of meeting the following requirements in addition to meeting the general conditions for certification (Council reg 7-294e-12(a)):

A Baccalaureate degree, with a major or concentration of courses in the discipline/area to be taught.

POST will consider certification from other accrediting bodies under this category, such as a local university or professional licensing bodies. GENERAL certificates are valid for one (1) year and may be renewed, as long as instruction was performed in the area of certification during the certification period to Connecticut police officers.

Complete all sections on the application form except area three (3) which must be signed by the Chief Executive Officer or the agency Director or Commanding Officer of the law enforcement units Training Division or Training Academy which seeks to use your services.

PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATES - LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

Police Officer applicants must have at least three (3) years experience in the subject area to be instructed. They may be experts or specialists in their respective fields, but who have not yet satisfactorily completed an approved instructor development or method of instruction course. POST may accept/grant provisional certification to an individual who has documented expertise in an area of instruction (i.e. may include the completion of specialized and/or advanced training; acceptance as an "expert" by court of law, association, society, or other recognized body); and/or experience in the subject area.

Complete all sections of the application form except area three (3) which must be signed by your Chief of Police or Chief Executive Officer.

STANDARD CERTIFICATES

Applicants must have at least three (3) years experience in the subject area to be instructed; recommendation of their Chief Executive Officer; training in the area of, or a concentration of course work in the discipline to be taught; and satisfactory completion of an instructor development or method of instruction course or a recognized equivalent thereof.

Complete all sections of the application form except area three (3) which must be signed by your Chief of Police or Chief Executive Officer.

RENEWAL APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS
FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT INSTRUCTOR CERTIFICATION

REGULATIONS OF THE POLICE OFFICER STANDARDS AND TRAINING COUNCIL REQUIRE THE FOLLOWING IN ORDER TO RENEW AN INSTRUCTOR CERTIFICATION

The holder of a certificate shall make application for renewal of said certificate 60 days prior to its expiration date. Certificates will remain in effect for a period not to exceed three years.

The application process for renewal of the certificate shall be the same as for the holder's original application for certification except that applicants shall be required to verify that they have:

- taught at least one class per year in each area in which they have held law enforcement instructor certification since obtaining certification unless the subject area, for which recertification is being sought, is approved by the council for recertification on a triennial basis.
- updated their training materials to reflect advances in each area of specialization and maintain good standing as law enforcement instructors and, if applicable, as police officers in the State of Connecticut.

PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATES

Provisional Certificates shall not be renewed unless extended by the council. Holders of Provisional Certificates shall meet the general and specific conditions established under Subsection 7-294e-12, Standard Certification, during the three years of their provisional certification.

STANDARD CERTIFICATES

Standard Certificates will not be renewed if:
