Subject: Review Training Credit Hours

At the September 10th, 2020 regular meeting, the Police Officer Standards and Training Council voted to change the mandatory hours and subject areas for In-Service Review Training. The POSTC-50 form was amended to reflect the changes.

The number of hours required for recertification remains 60 hours tri-annually. Effective starting review period July, 1, 2021, the number of mandatory hours has increased to 31 hours tri-annually which include annual requirements in the following areas:

- Human Trafficking (514A) –DCF Refresher
- Body Worn Camera (BWC) (502B) - (GN 20-08)
- Firearms Practical (301) - 2 hours
- Use of Force (209)/Firearms Classroom (209)- (GN 03-03)

The number of elective hours has decreased to 29 hours tri-annually.

The new POSTC-50 form with a revised date of 1/2021 is attached and will be posted on the POSTC website: <https://portal.ct.gov/POST>. To access, click Certification Assessment Audit Division, <https://portal.ct.gov/POST/Certification-Division/Certification-Division> then click Review Training Forms <https://portal.ct.gov/POST/Certification-Division/Review-Training-Forms>.

Questions or comments may be directed to the Certification Officer, CJ McGuffey either by e-mail carriejo.mcguffey@ct.gov or phone 203-427-2605.
