VII. Items for Discussion

a. J.M. Wright Technical High School – Update

Dr. Hughes' update on Wright Tech included enrollment, mentoring, recruitment, fiscal concerns, and construction delays. Mrs. Bobroske asked that the Commissioner be brought up to date who can seek the help of the legislature. Mrs. Hopkins-Staten stated that the committee needs to see something on Wright Tech's plans and she requested for the next meeting, a template be prepared that would detail Wright Tech's plans. The committee also requested a database on reasons students leave.

VIII. Report of the Superintendent

- Dr. Hughes gave a brief overview of the Ribbon Cutting ceremony for the Aero Tech school at Brainerd Field which was held on March 9th.

IX. Other Matters

- At the request of Mrs. Bobroske, Bill No. 6370, An Act Concerning A Middle School College System, was handed out
- Mrs. Bobroske stated that she will call the state representative who questioned whether certified teachers administer the CAPT in high schools to confirm that they do.

X. Public Participation

- Ms. Patricia Keavney, V.P., SVFT, referred to the enrollment data supplied by Dr. Hughes indicating the total number of students leaving our schools (not just Wright) from 10/1/08 – 3/9/09. The data illustrated that 87 freshmen left and she, on behalf of the SVFT, was asking that every effort be made to recruit transfers to fill these vacancies.
- Mr. Mitchell Kogut, Business Development Leader, Education, TRANE, spoke of equipment his company no longer needs being shipped to the schools at no cost; HVAC positions; holding commercial tech curriculum apprenticeship classes during the summer at the company; supplying schools with classroom materials for training – open to teachers to learn the latest and building a relationship with the tech schools. He also commented on being impressed with students who were ill but were determined to take the NOCTI exam at Bristol Tech.
- Mr. John Bruno, Assistant Principal, Platt Tech, stated that at the legislative hearing, it was said that the Middle College proposal will not happen now but will be looked at in more detail by the legislature.
- Due to a committee member's conflict on meeting on Wednesday morning, the committee agreed on meeting on Tuesdays. Dr. Hughes will check with the principals at Norwich and Wright Tech for the April and May meetings and will get back to the committee.

XI. Adjournment

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 1:55 p.m.

Minutes approved at the April 7, 2009 meeting.
