All Connecticut educators have the opportunity for continuous learning and feedback, to develop and grow, both individually and collectively, through the educator evaluation and support system so that all Connecticut students experience growth and success.
Guiding Principles

The Connecticut Guidelines for Educator Evaluation are based on the following guiding principles:

(a) The primary purpose of educator evaluation is to strengthen individual and collective practices in order to improve student growth;

(b) Educator evaluation is standards-based, using the Connecticut Common Core of Teaching for teacher evaluation, Common Core of Leading: Connecticut Leadership Standards for administrator evaluation, and National Pupil Personnel Services standards documents for evaluation of educators in pupil services;

(c) Connecticut’s Core Standards, The Connecticut Framework: PK-12 Curricular Goals and Standards, as well as locally-developed curriculum standards are the basis for establishing outcomes at the district and school levels;

(d) The Guidelines foster continuing collaborative dialogue around teaching and learning in order to increase student academic growth and development;

(e) The Guidelines clearly connect professional learning to the outcomes of the evaluation process.
Role of EES 2022 Council

The Council (C.G.S. 10-151d – PEAC) shall be responsible for assisting the State Board of Education in the development of:

✓ (A) guidelines for a model teacher evaluation and support program;
✓ (B) a model teacher evaluation and support program, pursuant to subsection (c) of section 10-151b, (2) the data collection and evaluation support system, pursuant to subsection (c) of section 10-10a; and

Making the case for an evaluation system focused on continuous learning and feedback
The average student gains an additional three months of learning in math and reading with an effective principal.

Principals who consistently engage in these behaviors see more positive outcomes.
Engaging in instructionally focused interactions with teachers
Estimated Returns for Teachers Based on Their Professional Environments

Schools with the best professional environments see student achievement gains 40 percent greater than schools ranking among the lowest professional environments.

Schools’ overall professional environment percentile
- Above average environment
- Average environment
- Below average environment
The literature shows that beginning teachers improve more if they:

- Work in more supportive professional environments with strong school leaders.
- Work in schools that are more collaborative.
- Participate in a rigorous teacher evaluation system.
Key Learnings and Takeaways To-date

Evaluation works better as a tool for continuous learning when:

• Teachers and administrators receive accurate information about their performance (and evaluators differentiate across teachers)

• Teachers and administrators receive regular, strong, and actionable feedback tied to their ratings

• Teachers and administrators believe that their evaluators are competent and that the system is about support rather than just accountability
