In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: How to File a Complaint, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

- (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20250-9410;
- (2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or
- (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

The Connecticut State Department of Education is committed to a policy of equal opportunity/affirmative action for all qualified persons. The Connecticut Department of Education does not discriminate in any employment practice, education program, or educational activity on the basis of age, ancestry, color, criminal record (in state employment and licensing), gender identity or expression, genetic information, intellectual disability, learning disability, marital status, mental disability (past or present), national origin, physical disability (including blindness), race, religious creed, retaliation for previously opposed discrimination or coercion, sex (pregnancy or sexual harassment), sexual orientation, veteran status or workplace hazards to reproductive systems, unless there is a bona fide occupational qualification excluding persons in any of the aforementioned protected classes.

Inquiries regarding the Connecticut State Department of Education's nondiscrimination policies should be directed to: Levy Gillespie, Equal Employment Opportunity Director/Americans with Disabilities Coordinator (ADA), Connecticut State Department of Education, 450 Columbus Boulevard, Suite 505, Hartford, CT 06103, 860-807-2071, levy.gillespie@ct.gov.

Civil Rights Requirements for the SFSP

1 — Requirements

In accordance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food and Nutrition Service's (FNS) FNS Instruction 113 (Civil Rights Compliance and Enforcement – Nutrition Programs and Activities), and other authorizing legislation, sponsors must ensure that all people have the opportunity to participate in the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) and that no participant is discriminated against because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. SFSP sponsors must comply with the requirements indicated in this document.

Public Notification

1. Display the USDA's nondiscrimination poster "And Justice for All" provided by the Child Nutrition Unit in a prominent place in the administrative office and at each SFSP site.
2. Inform potentially eligible persons, applicants, participants, and grassroots organizations (particularly those in underserved populations) of programs or changes in programs. This includes information pertaining to eligibility, benefits, and services; the location of local facilities or service delivery points; and hours of service. This information can be communicated by methods including, but not limited to, websites, newspaper articles, radio and television announcements, letters, leaflets, brochures, computer-based applications, and bulletins.
3. Provide appropriate information, including web-based information, in alternative formats for persons with disabilities.
4. Convey the message of equal opportunity in all photographic and other graphics used to provide program or program-related information.

Civil Rights Requirements for the SFSP

5. Include the following nondiscrimination statement on all appropriate USDA Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) and agency publications, websites, posters, and informational materials provided to the public:

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: How to File a Complaint, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

- (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20250-9410;
- (2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or
- (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

An option for alternate wording is offered if the material is too small to permit the full statement to be included. If use of an alternate statement is appropriate, at a minimum it is to read:

“This institution is an equal opportunity provider.”

If this alternate statement is used, it must be in a print size no smaller than the text. This condition is not required when the material includes the full statement.

Data Collection and Maintenance

1. New sponsors must submit the CSDE's Civil Rights Pre-Award Survey for the SFSP as part of the original agreement. This requirement is for new sponsors only.
2. Determine the number of potentially eligible beneficiaries by racial or ethnic category for the area served by the institution each year. Sponsors report this information in the "Sponsor Application" portion of the annual SFSP online application packet.
3. Collect actual beneficiary data by racial or ethnic category for each site under the sponsor's jurisdiction. Sponsors of residential camps must collect and maintain this information separately for each camping session. The sponsor may use visual identification to determine a beneficiary's racial/ethnic category. Sponsors report this information on the Civil Rights Beneficiary Data Collection Form for the SFSP.
4. Maintain all SFSP records on file for three years after the date of submission of the final claim for reimbursement for the fiscal year to which they pertain, or if an audit is outstanding, until the audit is closed, as required by SFSP regulations.
5. Ensure that all civil rights data is maintained under safeguards, restricting access of records only to authorized personnel.

Training

1. Sponsors must provide civil rights training on an annual basis to all “frontline staff” who interact with applicants or participants, as well as those persons who supervise “frontline staff.” Training is required so that people involved in all levels of administration of programs that receive Federal financial assistance understand civil rights related laws, regulations, procedures and directives.

2. Specific subject matter for civil rights training must include, but not be limited to:
  - a. Collection and use of data (FNS 113-1, page 17)
  - b. Effective public notification systems (FNS 113-1, page 13)
  - c. Complaint procedures (FNS 113-1, page 29)
  - d. Compliance review techniques (FNS 113-1, page 19)
  - e. Resolution of noncompliance (FNS 113-1, page 24)
  - f. Requirements for reasonable accommodation of persons with disabilities (FNS 113-1, page 4)
  - g. Requirements for language assistance (FNS 113-1, pages 9-10)
  - h. Conflict resolution (FNS 113-1, page 3)
  - i. Customer service (FNS 113-1, pages 1-3)

Limited English Proficiency (LEP)

1. Local agencies that fail to provide services to persons with LEP may be discriminating on the basis of national origin.
2. Agencies are required to take reasonable steps to assure meaningful access to the information and services they provide. Reasonable steps would include providing translators or appropriate translations of SFSP materials and applications.
3. What constitutes the need for reasonable steps is contingent on a number of factors, including:
  - the number of LEP persons served;
  - the frequency LEP persons that come in contact with services;
  - the nature and importance of the services; and
  - the resources available to recipients and costs.

Equal Opportunity for Religious Organizations

1. Faith-based and community-based organizations (FBOs and CBOs) have a long history of involvement in the federal nutrition assistance programs and a tradition of supporting low-income people by providing a wide range of social services. These organizations are important and longstanding partners in the USDA's efforts to provide nutrition assistance to those in need.
2. Nutrition assistance program policy encourages the participation of FBOs/CBOs on an equal footing with other kinds of local cooperating organizations, and avoids barriers that would make their participation difficult. In addition, the FNS has undertaken special initiatives that recognize the role of FBOs/CBOs in serving low-income people.
3. The USDA promulgated a regulation on July 9, 2004 to ensure the elimination of unwarranted barriers to the participation of faith-based organizations in USDA-funded programs on the basis of religion. The regulation, titled Equal Opportunity for Religious Organizations is codified at 7 CFR Part 16, and ensures a level playing field for the participation of faith-based organizations and other community organizations in USDA programs.
